TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Permit is non-transferable and is valid for the period stated therein unless earlier revoked by the Washington Convention and Sports Authority t/a Events DC ("Events DC") in its sole and absolute discretion. Permit is valid for the Walter E. Washington Convention Center ("Convention Center") only and not for any other venue.
2. Permittee represents that it is engaged in the business of providing convention or exposition installation and dismantling, audiovisual, production, video, security, transportation management, medical, floral, labor or other professional convention or exposition services ("Convention/Exposition Services") in support of conventions, expositions, meetings, conferences, ceremonies, receptions, banquets, parties and similar events for clients of Permittee ("Client(s)").
3. Permittee, its agents and employees shall, during its use and occupancy of the Convention Center, comply with all applicable laws, regulations, rules, policies and procedures including, but not limited to, the "Building Access Policy," "No Smoking Policy", "No Take Policy", and the "Code of Conduct for Event Personnel", and shall obtain all licenses, permits and governmental or regulatory approvals required to perform the Convention/Exposition Services.
4. Events DC maintains a drug-free workplace. Permittee shall adhere to the terms of the Events DC Show-Site Drug-Free Workplace Policy (or successor policy) and shall maintain on file with Events DC Permittee's current corporate substance abuse policy and drug testing policy.
5. Permittee, its agents, employees and all persons under its control or supervision shall not cause damage to property or injury to persons in the Convention Center and shall at all times maintain all areas used in the Convention Center in a clean and orderly condition. Permittee shall ensure that its agents, employees and all persons under its control or supervision conduct themselves in a friendly, professional, and cooperative manner with Event's DC's guests and staff.
6. All equipment and other property brought into the Convention Center by Permittee, its agents, employees or invitees shall be stored in areas designated by Events DC. Events DC shall not be liable for any loss or damage to Permittee's equipment or property.
7. Permittee shall, upon the Client's move-out from the Convention Center and/or the expiration or revocation of this Permit, return the area(s) entered into and/or occupied to the same condition as existing prior to such entry and shall remove all goods, equipment, personal property, trash and debris occasioned by Permittee's and/or Client's use of the Convention Center. Permittee shall be responsible for paying all costs to restore the Convention Center to its original condition. Permittee shall at all times be liable for any damage to Events DC's property caused by Permittee, Permittee's agents, employees or guests. Events DC may separately invoice Permittee for any cleaning, repair or replacement costs, payment of which shall be made within thirty (30) days.
8. Events DC may, at its sole option, remove from the Convention Center at Permittee's expense any goods, equipment and property owned by or attributable to Permittee and Events DC shall not be liable for any damage or loss to such goods, equipment and property associated with the removal.
9. Events DC reserves the right to obtain payment from Permittee or its Clients for work or services performed by Events DC for the benefit of such Clients.
10. By receiving this Permit, Permittee hereby releases and shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Washington Convention and Sports Authority t/a Events DC, its Board of Directors, officers, agents and employees (collectively, the "Indemnitees") from any and all claims, demands and payments (including attorney's fees), suits, actions, damages, losses, costs, liabilities, expenses and judgments of every nature and description made, brought or recovered by any person by reason of, arising out of, or as a consequence of, the exercise of the issuance of this Permit and the privilege granted herein, the use of the Convention Center, or the failure to comply with the terms and conditions of this Permit or its enforcement. Such indemnification shall not extend to any loss or damage resulting from the Indemnitees' sole negligence, gross negligence or willful misconduct, provided, however, that Permittee shall defend the Indemnitees until it has been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction that the loss or damage resulted from the Indemnitees' sole negligence, gross negligence or willful misconduct. Permittee's indemnification of the Indemnitees is independent from, and not limited in any manner by, Permittee's insurance coverage obtained pursuant to this Permit or otherwise.
11. Permittee shall secure and maintain, at its sole cost, for the duration of this Permit, liability insurance, the minimum amounts of which are described below, for claims arising from injury or death to persons or damage to property, which insurance shall contain an endorsement indicating that the Washington Convention and Sports Authority t/a Events DC, its Board of Directors, officers and employees are included as additional insureds. Events DC shall not be responsible for maintaining insurance of any kind to cover any of Permittee's property. Prior to entering the Convention Center, performing any Convention/Exposition Services, or engaging in any use of the Convention Center, Permittee shall provide a certificate of insurance (or, if requested by Events DC, the policy endorsement) evidencing coverage in at least the amounts shown below and identifying the Washington Convention and Sports Authority t/a Events DC, its Board of Directors, officers and employees as additional insureds. Permittee shall immediately notify Events DC of the cancellation or material modification of any policy for which coverage is obtained.
