EVENTS DC PRESENTS PASSPORT

What You Need to Know

- Most embassies are open from 9:30 AM to 5:00 PM. Check the Events DC App for times.
- Admission is free.
- Street parking is available but limited near embassy locations. Many embassies are within walking distance of the Dupont Circle and UDC/Van Ness Metro rail stations.
- Embassies on International Drive are larger and often have shorter lines than those on Embassy Row.
- Embassies may require photo ID for admission. Generally, IDs are not needed for children accompanied by an adult.
- Embassies may have items for sale, and some may accept cash only.

GET YOUR PASSPORT STAMPED!

Pick up a Passport DC souvenir passport to get it stamped at the embassies you visit on May 2! Passports are free and available at the following locations: Passport DC Information Hubs in Dupont Circle and UDC Student Center, the Mexican Cultural Institute and the Flower Mart at the Washington National Cathedral.
